Second Primary Aug. 26 Ruled as Necessary Harvest in Randall County Practically Complete

Capt. Al Baggett Writes Veteran Soldiers to Demand More Athletics

Co. F Hero to Visit in Canyon

Texas Veteran Is Much Decorated for His Brave Fight Against Germans

Company F, original Canyon National Guard Unit, had one of the most decorated doughboys in Italy. He is T/Sgt. Manuel S. Gonzales from Fort Davis. He is now back in Texas and expects to visit Canyon before returning to active service.

According to war announcement: "He plans to visit Canyon, the town from which most of the men of his company came. It originally was a Texas National Guard outfit. Gonzales wants to tell the Canyon people, he says, what real fighting men their doughboy sons, husbands, brothers and sweethearts have proved themselves to be."

The Sergeant wears the Distinguished Service Cross, the nation's second highest award for gallantry in action; the Silver Star, also for gallantry; the Purple Heart for battle wound; the Combat Infantryman Badge, awarded for exemplary conduct in action. He earned the DSX at Salerno where single-handed he destroyed four German machinegun nests and a mortar.

Company F is under the command of Lt. Joe Gill of Canyon, and more than a dozen Canyon boys are still in the company. 83 Canyon boys were in the company when it went into training at Camp Bowie.

Recalling other men of Company F, Sgt. Gonzales reports:

"Such fellows as Capt. Crowe and Lieut. Black, and Lieut. Joe Gill, who worked up from buck sergeant to company commander, are men you'd be willing to follow anywhere. And we did follow them. They led us. They always showed us the way."

"And there was Sgt. Truett O'Donnell, another fellow from Canyon. Once at Cassino, when officers over him were either killed or wounded, he took charge of a platoon, maneuvered it, broke up a counter attack, and took 28 prisoners."

Canyon citizens will be greatly interested in the visit of this young hero when he comes to report on the action of the men of Company F.

Few Men Called This Week Going to Oklahoma City

John Watson Nicholson and Cole Willard Thurman left Monday for Oklahoma City for induction into the armed forces.

Three men were transferred to other boards for induction: Daniel Claude James to New Mexico; Joe Harry Roberts to California; Deard Clyde Hamilton, Jr., to Dumas.

Eight men will leave today for Oklahoma City to take their physical examinations: Francis Marion Davis, Walter J. Barnes, Travis Charles Montgomery, Kenneth Eugene Davis; and four who were transferred to the local board for examinations: William Okla McConnell from Missouri, Gordon Leslie Ruthardt from Lubbock, Aubrey Wiggs from Hunt county, Maxie Ray Morris from California.

Under the change of plans all men from Randall county will now be sent to Oklahoma City instead of to Lubbock.

Harts Renovate Shop Store Room

Another business house is having its face lifted. Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hart are completely renovating offices and show rooms of Hart's Appliance Co.

The partition in the front has been removed. Walls, ceiling and floor have been given a coat of paint. New arrangement of stock will give a better display of all lines of the Company.

With the front being given a coat of paint also, the West side of the square is beginning to gleam.

Gordon Bourland from Dallas spent a week recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bourland. Mrs. Bourland returned with her son for a week's visit.

Famed Coach of Tall Buffs Gives Impression of Yanks in Italy

ROME: (By Air Courier).—Texas communities, all of America for that matter, may as well begin scraping off those vacant lots and providing facilities for the greatest sports era the world has seen.

These are the thoughts of Capt. Al Baggett, Canyon, who coached to national prominence the famed "Tallest Basketball Teams in the World" at West Texas State College. The tall, drawing West Texan is in a position to know what effect this war has had on sports and recreation. He is secretary of the Allied Sports Commission, in fact, its ramrod. It's a staff of Allied officers who stage all sports events in the Mediterranean theater.

Sports Program Essential

The Army and Navy have educated these boys in the value of physical fitness, team play and sportsmanship," Baggett said. "They won't be satisfied to sit down when they are returned to their communities."

Sgt. Billy Black Is Awarded Medal Unusual Services

S/Sgt. William M. Black, son of Mrs. J. C. Black, ball turret gunner on an AAF B-17 Flying Fortress operating in the Mediterranean Theater was recently awarded the Air Medal for duty with the 15th Air Force. The award was made by direction of the President of the United States and by order of Major General Nathan F. Twining, Commanding the 15th Air Force in Italy. The citation reads in part: "For meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy."

Sgt. Black is a graduate of Canyon High School with the class of 1938 and later attended West Texas State College where he majored in history. Prior to going into the Armed Forces he was employed as a clerk for Thompson Hardware Company.

He received his combat training at Rapid City, South Dakota and Tampa, Florida, and has now successfully completed 25 combat missions over enemy occupied Europe.

Sgt. George Schmitz Found That Eskimos Were a Friendly People

Canyon Boy Spent 35 Months in Alaska; Now in Camp in the U. S.

After 35 months' uninterrupted service in Alaska, sometimes under extremely trying conditions, T/Sgt. George Schmitz now of Base Operations at OASD, Hill Field, Utah, still likes the country and plans to go back there after the war.

T/Sgt. Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmitz, was sent to the Alaskan Air Port near Anchorage at the completion of his training in the base forces (now the Air Service Command) of the Army Air Corps in December, 1939, and after 18 months' service in the United States.

Shortly after his arrival near Anchorage, he was sent out to repair a B-12. It was there that he first became acquainted with the Eskimos and realized how friendly and helpful they were. The two B-12s that carried the repair crew landed in what proved to be soft gravel. For a time it looked as though three B-12s would be marooned instead of one. Then a group of Eskimos from the village came to their aid, literally carrying the B-12s out of the soft gravel onto the tundra.

Many of the Eskimos talked a little English and they taught the Americans many things such as how to travel on trails, how to care for frost bite, how to protect themselves in storms, and which are the soft spots in muskeg. At that time there was no extensive training program in conditioning our men for foreign service. Schmitz says the suggestions of the Eskimos undoubtedly saved their lives many times.

Storage Problem Is Little Better

Average for the County Will Break All Records; Many Are Making Loans

Practically all wheat in Randall county has been cut.

A large volume of wheat is coming to market as elevators find terminal facilities for storage.

According to general reports the county's average on wheat should go between 25 and 30 bushels to the acre, which will set a new high for Randall county.

Terminal facilities are improving daily, according to reports. Cars may not be shipped without a permit, but the tension of last week in the terminals seems to have improved to a considerable extent.

More than 400,000 bushels have been put in government loans, and warehouse receipts are being received at the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch daily.

Some barley is now being received at the elevators. There is no loan on barley except barley which is stored on the farms. The cash price for barley is now 90 cents per bushel.

No oats has been handled at elevators owing to the shortage of storage. While most farmers plan to hold the oats crop for feed on the farms, it is likely that a considerable volume will be brought in for sale during the coming few weeks.

Weather has been ideal the past week for harvest, with no interference of rain.

Butlers Get Taste War Conditions on West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Butler have arrived in Los Angeles where Mr. Butler will start work on his Ph. D. degree.

Mr. Butler writes of the crowded condition of the city. There are about 250,000 war workers in that area. It is estimated that not more than 25% of these will be engaged in the plants after the war. With the prospects for early peace many of these workers are beginning to migrate to other sections, according to information Mr. Butler has gained at a local forum of the air.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet in regular session Monday afternoon, August 7, at 4 o'clock at the Legion Hall. Since this is time for election of officers, it is urged that all members attend.

The knowledge of where to tread on muskeg was particularly useful on one occasion when they were sent to get a C-47 grounded in a six-foot layer of muskeg stretched over a clear body of water—35 feet in depth. This muskeg, made of live growth such as moss and grass interwoven, provides firm footing, except in the soft spots the boys had learned to recognize. One step there and one would plunge quickly down into the water, with no chance of getting out. There isn't even the air space found beneath ice.

In June of 1942, Sergeant Schmitz was flying to Umanak to repair seven B-26s when he encountered a group of P-40s travelling toward Dutch Harbor. He didn't know until he landed at Umanak that they were going there to drive off the Japs who were staging the second raid on that port, and that there was a Japanese task force heading that way approximately 100 miles out.

At that time our air force was so small it was necessary to repair every plane, planes that would not be considered worth salvaging today. They were so short-handed and the situation was so acute, that no man was allowed a furlough—or even a three-day pass—between July, 1941, and the fall of 1943, when the Allies re-took Kiska.

Sgt. Schmitz is a line chief Base Operations. He works on maintenance of transient aircraft.

The above is an excerpt from "The Hillfielder," Hill Field, Utah newspaper, which was sent to Wm. Schmitz by his son, Sgt. Schmitz.

No Fireworks at Co. Convention Saturday p. m.

Randall county had a calm and harmonious Democratic County Convention Saturday, with no fireworks or opposition to the resolutions which were adopted.

Delegates were present from Precincts 1, 4, 6, 7, and 9. The unit rule was not imposed on the delegations, each individual voting as he desired. However, there was no opposition to any of the resolutions which were presented by G. G. Foster and Clyde Warwick.

The resolutions were a modified form of the ones which were adopted the previous week in Precinct No. 1.

The peace policy of the Roosevelt-Truman ticket was endorsed; the administration of Governor Coke R. Stevenson endorsed; the action of the State Democratic Executive Committee in its effort to restore the party to the Democrats of the state was approved; the rights of minority groups were endorsed; electors of the party were urged to follow the direction of the majority in the November election; delegates to the State Convention at Dallas on Sept. 12 will go uninstructed, but requested to work with the majority.

W. J. Flesher introduced another resolution which was adopted calling upon the legislature to amend the Terrell Election Law so that primary expenses would be paid out of county funds rather than by the candidates. Oklahoma and many other states have such a law. In Texas local candidates must bear the expense of all primary elections.

Clyde W. Warwick, P. E. Savage and W. A. Warren were elected delegates to the September state convention. Randall county will have only one vote in this convention due to the small number of votes cast for Governor in 1942. Randall county had three votes in the June state convention, which was based upon the numbers of votes cast for President in 1940.

Cowpunchers Will Get Together at Tri-State Fair

The annual round-up of old time cowpunchers will be held at the Tri-State Fair grounds in Amarillo this year instead of the Wragge Park north of Canyon. Wragge Park was selected as the meeting place several years ago because it is adjoining the old T-Anchor Ranch headquarters, now the College Farm. The date for the reunion is August 24.

C. H. Stratton is "outside man" for Randall county, and tickets to the round-up may be secured from him.

Herbert M. Timmons of Amarillo is secretary of the cowpunchers association.

The fair grounds will be opened for the round-up on Aug. 23. A John Snider barbecue will be served at 1 o'clock on August 24. Women are asked to bring pies and cakes.

Dues are $2.00 and must be sent to Mr. Stratton or Mr. Timmons in advance in order that preparations may be made for those who will attend.

Penick Taken Back To Hospital

Leon Penick was returned to an Amarillo hospital Friday. When the cast was taken from his broken leg it was found the bone was not in place and it was necessary to return him to the hospital. His left leg was broken and his head badly injured when his car was hit by a train.

Mrs. Penick was killed in the accident.

O. I. Smith Called By Sister's Death

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Smith went to Stratford Tuesday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Smith, who died Sunday.

The family lived in Canyon many years ago. The husband died a few years ago.

HAD OPERATION

Mrs. K. E. Frieze is recovering from an operation for appendicitis at an Amarillo hospital Saturday. She is reported to be doing nicely.

E. P. Faulkner left Friday night to visit his wife and new daughter at Whitney, Texas for a few days.

Historic Meetings East and West

ON FRANCE FRONT—After bitter fighting, the first British troops enter Caen and greet the two chief French patriots who stayed in the city's ruins.

ON BURMA FRONT—A few days before the Caen meeting, this lower picture was taken when Indian soldiers driving north from Imphal met British troops battering their way south from Kohima. Thus, after much hard fighting, in which Indian and British troops killed more than 15,500 Japs, the whole of the Imphal-Kohima road was freed for traffic.

Final Figures on Bonds Unfinished

Purchases Through Pay Roll Deductions Await State Office Figures

Randall county is over the top on the 5th War Loan Drive. However, the final figure for the drive is not completed. Many Randall county citizens make regular monthly purchase of bonds through payroll deductions, and these have not yet been received by County Chairman R. H. Wright.

Mr. Wright states that a detailed report on the result of the drive will probably be available next week.

Little Lumber Is Now Available to the Civilians

Lumber is on the priority list and is very hard to secure. A new plan for handling lumber through the War Board became effective Tuesday.

The system of sale of lumber is so complicated and far-reaching that all citizens who wish to buy lumber are advised to see their dealers and make their wants known before starting on any construction or repairs.

Lumber has become scarce because of the great need in shipping war materials to foreign ports, and the repairs of docks in all parts of the world where our troops are fighting.

Son of Paul E. Foster Decorated For Achievement

Word comes from England that Lt. Paul E. Foster, bombardier on a B-17 Flying Fortress, has been awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal for "exceptionally meritorious achievement" while participating in sustained combat operations over enemy occupied Europe. Lt. Foster is the son of Paul E. Foster of Canyon and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Foster.

The citation accompanying the award read in part: "The courage, coolness and skill displayed by this officer upon these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

County Must Hold Primary

Only Two Voting Places Will Be Opened August 26; Two Races in State

There will be a run-off election in Randall county on August 22.

All members of the County Executive Committee expressed opposition to such a second primary. None of the candidates wanted the second primary owing to the fact that the bill must be paid by the local candidates.

But when the law was examined and legal advice sought, it was found that the county must have a second primary in spite of the apparently small interest in such a primary. It was estimated Saturday that probably not more than 300 voters would take time to go to the polls.

Only two voting places will be opened on August 26; the City Hall and the Alice Landergin school in South Amarillo.

Farmers of the county may vote at either of these boxes.

However, absentee ballots will be available for balloting from Aug. 5 to Aug. 22. Those who do not live in Canyon may either call at the County Clerk's office and cast an absentee ballot during that time, or they may have an absentee ballot mailed to them by application to the County Clerk.

Only four persons will be employed in each of the two boxes to hold the election in order to keep the expenses at a minimum.

Even with the second primary the County Executive Committee estimated Saturday that a good refund would be made to the local candidates after the second primary owing to the fact that expenses this year had been held to the lowest figure in several years. The small number of candidates on the ballot was responsible for this decline in election expenses.

The Executive Committee canvassed the returns of the July primary, which are published on another page of this issue.

Heat Record Set As Summer Hits Its Usual Stride

The highest temperature for the year hit the Plains Monday afternoon. The government weather bureau at Amarillo recorded 104 degrees. Thermometers in Canyon recorded as high as 105 degrees.

All heat records for August were exceeded Tuesday at Amarillo at 105 degrees. Local thermometers registered as high as 108 degrees.

No relief from this high temperature is promised by the weather man for this week end.

Owing to the high temperature, feed crops are beginning to suffer. There was much rain and continued cool weather during June and July. Feed crops have made a rapid growth, but the hot, dry weather of the past 10 days is beginning to affect the crops. Only scattered showers over the Plains are promised for this week end.

The total rainfall for July was 5.98 inches. This brought the total for 1944 up to 18.18 inches.

Ralph Cates Has Written About Conditions France

Ralph Cates, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cates, writes Edd Phillips from France.

"We are living here in fox holes. We get in them early and stay there until morning. . . . We had a very nice trip over. The sea was almost as smooth as a floor. The country we have seen so far looks like the swamps of Louisiana. What towns we have been through are some you have heard and read about being destroyed and that isn't the word for it. Some of them are almost completely flattened."

Pvt. Cates is with Co. "C" 704 Light Tank Battalion.

Paul Hicks Writes From Saipan; First News in 3 Months

Mrs. Lena Hicks had a letter from her son, Paul, Monday. This is the first word received in three months. He writes that he is in Saipan. "There isn't any reason to worry about me because I am as good as ever and didn't even get a scratch. Don't worry if you don't hear from me for a while until we get settled again."

Miss Louise Hardaway of Chanelling is visiting her brother E. C. Hardaway, and family.

The bosses won in both political parties. Those who like to think that "we the people" dictate the policies of our political parties have only to read the "behind the scenes" which occurred at Chicago during the two conventions in order to realize just how little "we the people" have to do in the selection of the candidates. Dewey was handed the Republican nomination by the bosses, and the delegates took him, not knowing what else they could do. Roosevelt was the choice of the major part of the Democrats, and naturally he was selected with a more or less free hand. But Wallace was likewise the choice of a majority at Chicago. The bosses, including the big boss of the White House, decided to throw Wallace to the wolves against his own will, and Truman was selected. In other words we are still living in an age of power politics, regardless of how much "we the people" think that we have the political situation in hand.

Prohibition forces have called elections in Dallas and Fort Worth. Hard local fights are being made to vote out the liquor joints. This is just the beginning. Not since national prohibition have the dry forces been so well organized. This time the campaign is being carried on under scientific direction of men who know how to handle political campaigns. It is predicted that several of the big cities of Texas will be added to dry columns this year. If these fights are successful, state-wide prohibition will next be on the calendar, followed by a fight for national prohibition. The difference this time from the unhappy experiment of 25 years ago will be that pros will be on guard against a return of liquor. It was taken for granted 25 years ago that national prohibition would be successful, and therefore the people forgot about it once it was enacted. With the Roosevelt administration strongly opposed to national prohibition, the dries will have a fight to properly enforce the law. But it can and will be enforced.

Election rumors have been started and will grow as November draws near. Dewey will be the rumor subject of the Republican party, while Truman will be the pet subject of the Democratic ticket. Truman is selected in view of the popularity of the President and the fact that his private and political life have been opened to public scrutiny for so many years that there is nothing else to reveal about him. If he can keep Eleanor at home for three months, the opposition will lose most of its thunder. Truman is different. He was a member of the notorious Pendergast organization in Kansas City, but should be respected for having accepted the advantages of power politics without having indulged in its corrupt practices. The people generally accept Truman as the real candidate for President as few expect Roosevelt to remain in office for four more years, should the Democratic party win. Political rumors in a national election should be scorned, the same as they are usually scorned in local elections.

We hope that the people of Randall county will have more interest in the November election than they showed in the primary this year. Unfortunately we are not allowed to vote directly for President and Vice President, but for electors who will cast their votes for President and Vice President. The electoral college should be abolished before another presidential election so that ballots may be cast directly for the heads of the parties. Less than 50 per cent of the voters went to the July primary; only 10 per cent is expected in the August primary. Talk it up now, and get your neighbors to vote in November.

Randall county will have a second primary after all. Most of the local candidates opposed wasting money on a second primary, but when the law was examined it was discovered that a second primary must be held in spite of the opposition of all who have anything to do with the political affairs of the county. Only two boxes will be opened in Randall county—Canyon and South Amarillo. Any voter living outside of Canyon may vote absentee before the primary, or may come to Canyon and vote on August 26.

Various polls are being taken on the presidential election. Most of them indicate that the Roosevelt-Truman ticket will be re-elected. However, there is a decided apathy on the part of the voters throughout the nation. The registration of qualified voters has been light because of this lack of interest. When that happens, anything may happen.

Turkey has decided to join the United Nations at a safe time. She would not want to be left out of the peace parley. The manipulators at the peace table might decide that Turkey should lose some of her territory if she was not in the war at the wind-up.

Hitler is doing the United Nations a fine service in killing off his top ranking military leaders. An army cannot fight unless it has able, trained military leadership. Hitler has replaced most of his able military men, and recently killed a large number.

Willkie and Wallace can weep on each others shoulders and relate how they have been repudiated by their political parties.

High compliments paid extravagantly are likely to cause inflation, too.

The earth is about three million miles nearer the sun in the winter than it is in summer.

Some women seem to be afraid that a square meal will spoil their curves.

Before hopping on a train of thought, one should inquire as to its destination.

WOMAN'S SUFFER-AGE
Do you believe in clubs for women?

Yes, if kindness fails.
He who progresses by leaps and bounds isn't jumping to conclusions.

The News had two interesting visitors in the course of an hour the other day. One was working in a defense plant—or as he put it, "drawing money for work he did not do." He deplored the idleness which prevailed in defense plants where he had worked, and says that the people have no idea how they are being robbed under union rules, and the indifference on the part of workers. The other man, an ex-service man of 1917-18 who saw the horrors of France, left a good union job to buy a farm in Randall county so that he could provide future security for his family. Now organized labor is threatening his future security, and he wonders about the future. He has a boy in service, but wonders if he will have anything to offer this boy when he comes back. These are just two illustrations, coming from men in widely separated occupations, showing how the people are worried about the future security of the nation. It's time to think instead of listen to minority group leaders who are trying to hog all the benefits for their particular group, or to social and economical reformers who believe that everything is well in the world.

Perhaps not many readers are familiar with the case of Esquire, which the Postmaster General is seeking to bar from the mails. Many of you care nothing about the case. Few publishers have any interest in the case, except for one fact: If the Postmaster General wins this case before the Supreme Court, he becomes sole dictator of the press of America with power to bar from the mails any publication which does not suit his fancy. That is the reason why all publishers are vitally interested in the case and are backing Esquire to win in court. No one knows what the Supreme Court will do. It is packed with New Dealers who have backed up the Washington bureaucrats in their efforts to control most every phase of life in America. The court is strong for centralizing power in Washington. If Esquire is defeated before the Supreme Court it will be barred from the mails and put out of business. The Postmaster General then can turn his guns on anti-administration publications at will. It is not a pretty picture. The freedom of the press hangs in the balances.

We hate to think it, but the strongest political figure in America today is a Russian immigrant, Sidney Hillman. If Hillman had not overplayed his hand at Chicago, he would have crammed Wallace down the throats of the delegates. The dangers from a well organized, well financed minority like CIO and other Communist groups is no fancied threat to free politics in America. Personally we believe that the labor racketeers will be overthrown at the end of the Roosevelt administration. It will be unfortunate if labor loses all of its gains of recent years through the unwise political ambitions of the unscrupulous leaders. We are told that Texas is in no danger of falling under the leadership of Hillman, yet there are plenty of unwise political leaders throwing in with the Hillman forces in the state to create a dangerous minority.

Americans have been protesting a lot about the growth of the bureaus in the nation. Bureaucrats have been thoroughly cursed during the war because so many local agencies have been set up. Some of these will be wiped out when the war ends. Local citizens will refuse to give their time on such jobs when the necessity of war ends. But that will not end the reign of bureaucrats over the nation, regardless of how the people feel. If the Democratic party wins, the administration will continue feeding those good Democrats who now hold these jobs; if the Republicans win, there are millions of hungry partisans who will rush to Washington demanding jobs which are now held by the Democrats. The reign of bureaucrats will continue. Perhaps the bureaucrats of peace will not be quite so bold and dictatorial as the present crop, but we shall have them nevertheless.

Those mighty B-29s have hit the Japs again. More munition plants were pulverized, and the Japs war machine was again badly crippled. These monsters of the air are a distinct tribute to the engineering and manufacturing ability of Americans. Their performance in the air is a tribute to our great civilian army which is doing the fighting for the nation. The Japs are not yet whipped. The war against the Japs has not progressed to the critical stage that Hitler faces in Europe, but the end is in sight. Japan will be wiped off the map if the warlords persist in trying to fight against the odds which she faces.

Germany will likely fold up before the average citizen realizes the end is at hand. Hitler's gang cannot hold in check at the end of the bayonet for a long period of time a nation which is tired of war. With the lessons of 1918-19 in mind, Congress is going to be prepared to meet the emergency of a sudden peace. Plans will be made as rapidly as possible to demobilize the nation after Germany's fall, in view of the fact that all of our armed forces will not be needed to liquidate Japan in an orderly fashion.

Here it is another birthday! Thirty-four years ago this week the Newsman took charge of this publication. These have been happy, busy years, with many eventful happenings in Canyon during that period of time. The News is the oldest business institution in Canyon. C. R. Burrow and T. C. Thompson are the only business men who have stayed at their present jobs longer than the Newsman. Here's hoping for another 34 years of usefulness to Randall county!

The death in action of General McNair and wounding of Hitler's Rommel show that military leaders are no longer directing their men at a safe distance behind the lines. Men fight better when they know that their officers are sharing the risk. American officers have always been known to take their places right up in front with those who face the bullets.

The closest political race in the Panhandle was that of Representative Ennis Favors of Pampa and R. L. Templeton of Wellington. Templeton failed to get his name on the official ballot in two of the four counties of the district. Therefore he had to rely on a write-in campaign. Favors won by only 108 margin. He has made old age assistance his principal legislative study, and was a close advisor of W. Lee O'Daniel.

Simplified Forms For Trucks Are Approved By ODT

Operators of commercial motor vehicles are informed by N. F. Nelson, of Amarillo, district manager of the Highway Transport Department of the Office of Defense Transportation, that they may use simplified forms of their own making in keeping tire inspection records of vehicles covered by Certificates of War Necessity.

Records of miles traveled, motor fuel consumed and inspections were said by the district manager to be more necessary today than ever before but use of ODT forms, heretofore required, will not be necessary.

Operators, who still have Forms 17 and 17-A on hand, may continue to use them until they are exhausted if they desire. However, no new ones will be supplied.

Records are subject to periodic inspection by ODT officials. Information required includes a record of tire inspection for each vehicle, date of inspection, inspection station number, county and state, serial number or brand of tires requiring service and description of the required services, certification of inspector that no service is necessary or certification that such service as was required has been performed. "The merchant who tells the people about himself now, who shows that he is making a valiant effort to supply goods of his line for the benefit of the public, even though his volume and assortment is less, is the merchant who will linger in the confidence and esteem of the country after the war. He will be in much better position to build back to his former state under post-war conditions than the man who prefers to let his name drop out of the public prints—and thus largely out of public consciousness."

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

PLENTIFUL FOODS DURING AUGUST

Foods expected to be plentiful throughout most of the country during August, according to the War Food Administration, are fresh tomatoes, fresh peaches, peanut butter, citrus marmalade, canned green and wax beans, frozen vegetables, frozen baked beans, dry-mix and dehydrated soups, oatmeal, wheat flour and bread, macaroni, spaghetti, noodles and soya flour, grits and flakes.

WHERE IS YOUR SHARE (QM)

Of the eight million tons of paper needed for salvage in 1944, the War Production Board says 38 per cent is in hiding in American homes and farms, while the other 62 per cent is to be found in the files and store rooms of American industry. If the Boy Scouts or the Girl Scouts don't find those home-hidden hoards of waste paper before next fall, school children hope to dig them out.

VICTORY GARDENS FOR FALL

WFA wants more Fall Victory Gardens, especially in the South where late summer plantings of lettuce, cabbage, kale, beets, spinach, turnips, collards and carrots will produce fresh produce until the ground freezes. WFA wants to increase the Victory Garden harvest 25 per cent.

HORSES AND MULES "DEMOLISHED"

Mechanization of the Army resulted in a surplus stock of 17,000 horses, an office of War Information reports on surplus War property shows. Dealers bought the horses at sales and sold three-fourths of them to farmers. Between 600 and 700 mules, also displaced by Army mechanization, have been auctioned off.

GASOLINE FOR THOSE ON LEAVE

Members of the Armed services will get a gallon of gasoline for each day of their leave or furlough up to 30 gallons, according to a new Office of Price Administration policy. No ration will be granted for passes, for liberties or leaves or furloughs of less than three days, at the suggestion of the Army and Navy. The member of the Armed Services should apply for gasoline rations to the War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction over the automobile he is to drive and he should present proper leave or furlough papers.

CEILINGS ON RESTAURANT PRICES

By August 16 every eating and drinking establishment in the country is required to post its ceiling prices on 40 basic meals and food items on an official poster supplied by the War Price and Rationing Board. OPA announces. Prices are to be the same as those charged during the week, April 4-10, 1943, except that coffee is to be five cents a cup or pot unless the establishment charged more during the week, October 4-10, 1942. While ceiling prices on their posters must be week-day prices, those concerns that charged more for Sunday meals may continue such extra charge. Exempt from the regulation under certain conditions are places operated by schools, colleges, fraternities, hospitals, private clubs and recognized charitable, religious and cultural organizations.

G. I. VETS WANT EDUCATION

More than 1,000 Veterans G. I. Jobs already have applied to the Veterans Administration for Educational benefits offered them under the so-called G. I. Bill of Rights. In addition, 4,000 written inquiries and many additional telephone inquiries about benefits offered under the Bill have been received. To be eligible for educational benefits, a veteran must have had his education interrupted and must have had 90 days active service since September 16, 1940, with separation under conditions other than dishonorable. Veterans who entered service before they were 25 years old are presumed to have had their education interrupted.

CEILINGS ON USED FARM EQUIPMENT

Regardless of who the seller may be, OPA now has established ceiling prices on the following items of used farm equipment. Farm and garden tractors (except track-type); tractor-mounted mowers, including semi-mounted (power take-off driven) mowers-combines; corn binders; corn pickers; hay loaders; manure spreaders; side delivery rakes; and a combination of any of these items with other items of farm equipment specifically designed for mounting thereon, where the combination is sold as a unit.

SOME NEW SCHOOL BUSES AT LAST

After almost total lack of new school buses for two years, WPB approved a 1944 production quota of 5,000, of which more than 2,400 already have been released to schools where new buses were needed to prevent absences and replace unsafe equipment, the Office of Defense Transportation reports.

PEAR PRICES DOWN, SAYS OPA

Fresh pears for your table should cost no more than 15 cents a pound until September 10, and after that until next April, no more than 17 cents a pound, OPA says. With fresh pears for table use under price control for the first time, OPA looks for a reduction of about 20 per cent from last year's retail prices.

2nd Union Meeting of Churches Will Be Held Sunday

The second meeting for the summer series of union services of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian Churches will be held next Sunday night at the Presbyterian church. Rev. C. C. ### Light Trucks to Not Be Available For General Use

N. F. Nelson, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation at Amarillo, today announced receipt of notice not to accept applications for light motor trucks following denial by the War Production Board of the ODT's request for resumption of light truck production beginning with the first quarter of 1945.

There is little likelihood for new light motor trucks being available for the nation's truck operators during the first quarter of 1945 as a result of this action on the request of the ODT for a minimum program of light trucks for essential civilian needs, the district manager said.

The WPB's decision was based upon the demand for trucks by the armed forces, it is said.

A total of 41,000 light trucks for the first quarter of next year was, however, authorized by WPB on a suspended AA-3 basis. This, the ODT emphasized, does not constitute an authorization to produce until specifically validated by the WPB at some later date. It permits planning for production, but not actually production.

"Consequently," it was pointed out, "The outlook for new light motor trucks in the first quarter of 1945 is indeed gloomy."

The ODT official explained that there has been no production of light trucks since completion of March, 1942, schedules. Since March 9, 1942, the beginning of truck rationing, there have been approximately 28,000 light trucks available from the national pool of trucks for essential civilian uses. Ordinary peacetime production of trucks in this class averages 300,000 a year. Such equipment is used principally in agricultural work, and to a lesser extent in building maintenance and services, essential wholesale and retail distribution, oil field production and exploration, and in public utility work.

On August 7, next, all trucks remaining in the pool which have not been taken up by the various agencies holding authorized quotas against them will be transferred to a common pool available equally to all agencies. The ODT is hopeful that it can gain a few more light trucks for civilian use as a result of this action.

Time To Vaccinate Before School Opens During September

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges the parents of all children who will respond to the school bell for the first time in September to be sure the child is physically ready for school duties.

"First and foremost is the need for vaccination against smallpox. Parents and physicians should see that children are vaccinated before they are one year of age; however if not done previously, at school age vaccination becomes absolutely necessary," Dr. Cox said. "If your child has not been vaccinated, have it done immediately so that the scar will be completely healed before school opens."

Immunization against diphtheria is also highly desirable, Dr. Cox believes. This disease, which causes serious illness and deaths among young children can be prevented with toxoid. The child who has never been protected should be given this safeguard against a dreaded disease. Even though he may have been immunized as a baby, doctors and health officers usually recommend an additional dose of toxoid to strengthen immunity before entrance into school.

"In addition, before you send your child to school you are urged to take him to your family physician and dentist for a thorough examination," Dr. Cox adds. "You will want to know that he is in good physical condition and can compete with the other children on equal terms. If the check-up reveals any weakness or defect there will be time to build up his general health and correct dental defects before school opens. Don't let your child start his school life with any avoidable handicap."

Pastor Will Preach on Heaven at Baptist Church Sunday

Pastor Roy L. Johnson will preach on "Heaven" Sunday night, August 6th, at the Baptist church. Bob Kilgore will direct the music and all songs will be on this theme at this 8:15 service. Training Union, with a program for each age group, will be at 7:15. Visitors are welcome.

At the morning hour the pastor will preach on "God's Holy Portion." The service will begin at 11:00. Sunday School will begin at 9:45, and there is a department and class for each age.

The congregation of the church has been gradually adding to the building fund through their contributions each week and much of the material needed to complete the spacious building is now on hand. August 20 has been set as the day when friends are asked to voluntarily bring enough money to complete the house, which the pastor and committee believe can be done before the end of the year. It will take about $7,500.00 to complete the hundred thousand dollar building. There is no debt on any of the property and the completion work will be a cash job.

In the early days of the railroads a small road was famous for having a notoriously rough stretch of track. One day a new brakeman making his first run, was standing in the center of the car, grimly clutching the seats to keep from being knocked over.

Suddenly the train struck a smooth piece of track and glided along with the greatest of ease, scarcely making a sound.

Sneezing the lantern, the wild-eyed brakeman ran for the exit. "Jump for yer lives!" he shouted. "She's off the track!"

"I'm Fighting It Out Along This Line!"

The electric power line is busy backing up the front line, and it's one the Axis can't break. I'm doing my bit along this line. It's a mighty big bit, too—because the United States has more electric generating capacity than Germany, Japan and Italy combined. It's helping build tanks, planes and guns all over the country.

When you consider how many war plants right in this section depend on me for power to keep them going, you'll see why I'm really a war worker like a lot of you folks. Then remember that I am helping out on thousands of farms here, to maintain the food supply that both our armed forces and our home-front workers need in the big push for final Victory. In the home, too, you'll find me running all kinds of appliances so that women can spend more time doing their share.

I'm devoting everything I can to working for Victory—and I've never been too little or too late. Yet you haven't had to go without my services elsewhere just because I was doing war work.

Fewer Cars Run Over Nation and Gas Tax Reduced

According to the lagging sale of the annual $5 car stamps, there are 2,400,000 fewer cars in operation than were in use a year ago.

The decline in stamp sales amounts to $11,963,746. This indicates that 2,400,000 car owners of a year ago have (1) junked their cars, (2) put them up for the duration, or (3) decided to risk the $25 penalty for not having bought the stamp.

and editorial writers because, they said, he was trying to destroy the party of Jefferson and Jackson. They forgot that, in Jefferson's day, he was condemned for "exceeding his authority" in making the Louisiana Purchase and that Jackson, in his time, was cursed as a dictator because he overthrew the national bank, which, he said, otherwise would destroy the nation.

Wilson's foes called him an impractical schoolmaster and nothing that he did could please them. They criticized him for using the veto power. They got mad at him because he married again after his first wife had died. They said he had no right to leave American soil, though 2,000,000 soldiers of whom he was the commander-in-chief were overseas. And, as for his League of Nations, why the freedom of the United States would be at an end if we entered it, they said.

After he had been stricken in the midst of his speaking tour on behalf of the League, Senators talked of declaring his office vacant. A few of these Senate foes gloatingly gathered around his sick bed, like so many vultures.

But now it is perfectly safe to praise Woodrow Wilson, even at a Republican convention. Just about everybody agrees that he was an inspiring war leader, a man of high ideals, a truly great President who shortened his life in trying to create an association of nations to prevent another world war.

When you take what they said about Wilson living and then what they say about Wilson dead, it makes a fellow wonder if it's the same man they're talking about.

Well, I just got to reflecting back a little.

Judge T. J. Renfro of Fort Worth had no opponent for re-election as judge of the county court. He remarked, "I've tried it both ways, with and without an opponent—and I like it best without."

A visitor asked a Texan if Texas folks don't "look down" on some people. He drawled in reply, "Not that I know of, but we sur as h—, don't look up to anybody."

Capt. Al Baggett

are provided for major, minor and just plain large-group participating sports, the minds and bodies of young America may turn to activities toward which police and civic groups look with fear.

Captain Baggett, who coached football, basketball and was athletic director at Canyon's college from 1933 to 1942, when he joined up with the Army Air Forces. After becoming an Army officer he was in charge of physical training in seven states for the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

Conducts All Sports

He came overseas last October as director of athletics for the North African theater of operations. The commission of which he is member-secretary sponsors boxing, basketball, baseball, track and field, swimming and soccer for Allied troops. Only recently it satged a gigantic track and field meet at Foro Mussolini, the beautiful stadium and athletic plant here in Rome where Il Duce had planned the Olympics. At the same time the name of the plant was changed to Foro D'Italia.

Getting back to the postwar athletic question, Captain Baggett said this: "We have activity in our system. Ours is the most traveled Army in the world, the best educated. These boys who haven't finished college will go back to school and take part in sports. Others will participate in local athletics. They won't be content to take midday naps as some Europeans do, but will be active. Sports are their release valve."

Here in Italy Mussolini had to cram sports down the throats of many in order to build up an able-bodied army, and in all dictator-controlled countries athletics play an important part in plans for a stronger race.

Volleyball Popular

For Allied troops, especially Americans, volleyball is the most popular game. It is played on every type of field, from pavement to plowed earth, and from one to fifteen players on each side of the net take part. Baggett insists that he saw one soldier playing solitaire volleyball, but he didn't explain the procedure.

French and English troops go in strong for soccer, but are gradually beginning to like baseball and volleyball.

Italians lost interest in competitive sports during the German occupation of this country. It happened this way:

A group of Italian athletes went out to the beautiful Foro Mussolini to work out. Some German officers watched them interestedly, then came to a decision.

"These are strong young men," they agreed. "We will send them to Germany to work in war plants." They did.

Mrs. Howard C. Brewster and baby daughter came home from the hospital Sunday and are at the parental L. A. Donnell home. Lt. Brewster is reported missing in action over Germany and no word has been received from him in more than a month.

Coaches Gus Miller and Windy Nicklaus are attending coaching school at Tulsa, Okla. Leslie Curb accompanied them.

Your War News Takes Form Here

Work of Chaplain Was Subject Talk at Rotary Luncheon

Chaplain J. S. Long of the Amarillo Army Air Field talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon on the work of the Army Chaplain. He was introduced by T. S. Stevenson.

Chaplains are never referred to by rank, or by the denomination with which they are affiliated. The work of the Chaplain comes from early history of mankind when spiritual instruction was given men before they went into battle.

Chaplains in the American army follow the pattern of British army. Washington introduced Chaplains into our army, and these officers have continued since.

In World War I there was a Chaplain to every 1,200 enlisted men. Five were killed in battle; 6 died of wounds; 12 died of disease; many were decorated for their acts of bravery.

The school for Chaplains was established in 1918. Ministers are sent to Harvard University where they are given an intensive course in morale building.

General Arnold was appointed Chief of Chaplains in 1920. He was described as a fine Catholic gentleman and Christian.

Chaplains are morale builders in the armed forces. Morale is recognized as the greatest force in the armed services.

When boys enter training camps, they are placed under the direction of the Chaplains who instruct the boys on moral, religious and patriotic subjects. Boys are taught to have pride in themselves; pride in the uniform they wear; respect for authority; pride in their country.

Chaplains go with the men to the battlefronts which is the supreme test of the training period.

Then they are trained for the future, the postwar period when many of the men will serve in the army of occupation after the excitement of battle is over.

Civilians have a definite part in keeping up the morale of the men. Parents and friends should not write letters filled with only bad news and complaints of the hardships of war. Letters should contain all of the cheerful news possible.

Agencies which are strong morale builders are:

1. The Red Cross, which is doing such a fine job for the men.
2. Service clubs in all camps.
3. Promotions, which encourage boys to do their best.
4. Decorations and awards, which give the men more confidence in themselves.
5. Instructing the men that those who fall in battle shall not be forgotten by an appreciative nation.
6. Purloughs, so that the men may come home and be with their families and friends.

Germany had a most effective system of morale building in child and youth training, through propaganda. Invincibility of the Germans was taught. The Germans were not defeated, but quit in 1918, according to this propaganda. The speaker wonders if the morale of the people holds up under the defeats of recent months.

The Japs entered the war as the toughest soldiers in the world, physically strong, and able to live on very little. They were taught that our men were not strong; that we were a nation of play boys. Morale is growing in our armed forces, and they are physically strong, and tough.

The hardest fight of the Chaplain is against profanity. Signs are put up in training camps. George Washington fought profanity in his army, and the bad effects that it had.

Chaplains teach the men that Americans are not a super race, and that we should have the respect of all nations and all peoples.

Visitors were: Lt. (jg) Arthur C. Haley; Raymond Huff of Clayton, N. M.; Earl O'Keefe and N. S. Griggs of Amarillo.

ODT Is Going After Trucks That Are Overloaded

A campaign against overloading of trucks is being waged by the Maintenance Advisory Committee of the Texas-Oklahoma-New Mexico-Louisiana Region of the Office of Defense Transportation. The committee, composed of businessmen of the transportation industry, also is urging operators to limit speeds in order to conserve tires.

E. B. Mohr, Dallas, Chairman of the committee, called attention to a tire engineer's report that a synthetic 9.00-20 S-6 rayon tire at 40 miles an hour and carrying a 30 per cent overload will reach a temperature in excess of 260 degrees. A temperature of 230 degrees is considered critical. With a normal load this tire's temperature is about 216 degrees.

The committee also is calling attention of operators to the desirability of shifting more highway travel of trucks to night hours, when the temperature is lower.

If air travel increases, billboard advertisers will be laying their signs flat on the ground, which is where they ought to be anyway.

Debts are the only things which expand when contracted.

Possibilities of Dude Ranch In Palo Duro Canyon Is Outlined

By PAT FLYNN

Visitors to Palo Duro Park, 12 miles east of Canyon, agree with Horse Wrangler Bob Miller that Texas is overlooking a bet in not making the beautiful canyon the largest dude ranch in America.

"Here," Miller says, "is everything the Easterner looks forward to in a ranch — canyons, streams, horses, trees, brush, wildlife and birds, all situated in a glamorous western state."

The amicable gate man has even gone to the extent of suggesting plans. His proposal for native rock barns, cedar post corrals, modern stone cabins, represents comparatively small expense.

The 15,103 acre park is being paid for by admissions to the canyons. A paved road leads to the entrance, and gravelled roads extend 15 miles into the canyon proper. There also are 20 miles of bridge trails and 30 miles of hiking trails. Saddle horses and pack burros are for rent; cow boy ranch accommodations, 150 picnic units, modern cabins on the rim and down in the canyons are available. Two buffalo are kept at the gate entrance, and the canyon boasts hundreds of deer, turkey, quail and other forms of wildlife.

Frank D. Quinn, executive secretary of the Texas State Parks Board, Austin, has received thousands of letters from park visitors extolling the scenic beauty of the canyon.

Some of these letters suggest a dude ranch be established at the park.

"I didn't like Texas until I saw Palo Duro Canyon," many service men write. Servicemen prefer horseback riding above all other attractions at the park. They express mild interest in "The Lighthouse," care little for the Pleistocene Epoch's (Ice Age) deposits, the Pliocene Epoch's sedimentary beds, rocks of the Triassic Age, the shales of Permian Age or Triassic Point, formations of countless millions of years.

The GI wants to ride a horse—preferably "Colonel G." Horse Wrangler Hiller attributes this to the fact soldiers want to say, truthfully, "I have ridden a colonel."

But there is one mount which absolutely refuses to be ridden—an albino mule that loafs around the entrance gate, nonchalantly, accepting candy, crackers and other bits of confections from all givers. He will serve as a lounging post for anyone who cares to play with him, but once mounted goes crazy and tosses all-comers with ease.

Last week a man from New Jersey arrived at the gate early in the morning. "I want to see that white jackass no one can ride," he demanded. He was shown the burro, tried to ride it and was promptly tossed off on the third buck.

The remuda of saddle horses have names familiar to regular riders. There is Black Jack, Stove Wood, Too High, Prairie Dog, John Adair, Colonel G., Maude, the Mule, Five Spot, Doctor C., Finger Tail, Coronado, Calico, Cactus Kid, Cold Jaw, Quitaque, Ridley Boy, Fred M., Pete, Clebo, Arthur H., Levi, Clovis, Chief, Tahan, Rondo, Steamer, Turpentine, Smokey Joe, Streak Face, and others equally popular.

One G. I. from Amarillo Field fell in love with horseback riding at the canyon. Every Saturday afternoon he arrived at approximately the same hour. He had only sufficient funds to rent a horse and pay his 35 cents admission fee. He didn't mind going hungry over the week end, just so he could ride "Smokey Joe." The cowboys at the park fed him. This continued for months. Then he missed coming for exactly 30 days. When he returned he explained his absence bluntly: "I've been in the guard house."

This week the park boys received a letter from the soldier, who was at a port of embarkation ready to sail overseas. "Please take good care of Smokey," the lad wrote. "I'll be back after the war to ride him again."

"Have you really shown me everything you have in the shop?" "Not quite, Madam. We have an overdue account of yours on our books, if you care to see it."

You don't have to be a legislator to discover that the speaker of the house is the wife.

Hearing a song hit too often leads to making people wish it had been missed.

Wherein Lies His Power

Women say that all men are alike, which wouldn't make the men mad if men are really like what they think they are.

Stepping up the frequency of the brain waves will frequently throw light on a controversial subject, instead of heat.

The United States purchased Alaska from Russia for $7,200,000; and the Louisiana territory from France for $15,000,000.

If hot air rises, as the scientists say, the atmosphere will soon be cleared of all these political speeches.

People who live in glass houses should have clear consciences.

Globalove Affair

One of the romances of the year: Kay Cochran of Grand Rapids, Mich., and 25-year-old Lt.-Col. Francis Gabreski of Oil City, Pa., British-based Thunderbolt pilot with 28 planes to his credit. They met in Hawaii three years ago.

The little colored boy was beginning his first railroad trip alone and his mother told him to be sure to write his name and address on a card and to keep it in his pocket. And so he wrote: "In case of an accident, dis is Abraham Lincoln Jackson."

Carson: I knew an artist once who painted a cowbuck so realistically that the maid spent hours trying to brush it down.

Willson: I don't believe it. Carson: Why not? It's a fact that artists have been known to do such things.

Willson: Yes, but not maids. HE EXPECTS YOU TO LISTEN The man who bores you most of all is he who's full of woe. For when you ask him, "How are you?" He thinks you want to know! Helen Castle.

In a small school a number of pupils were asked to explain the meaning of "righteous indignation." And Tommy said it was, "Benig mad without cussing."

Harry: I wonder what kind of a girl Jessie is? Larry: She's the kind that the more one thinks of the less one thinks of.

Signs of the times—"What! you offer me only $1,800 for this car! You're crazy—I paid $1,400 for it new."

H. J. R. No. 18 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an Amendment to Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by changing said Section 9 so as to provide that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the county tax levies authorized in said section by changing the rates provided for any of the purposes authorized in said section by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of such taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year; providing that before such Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in such levies that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county at a general or special election and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; and, provided further that if and when such re-allocations and changes in such levies have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which same shall be approved, unless the same shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court at a general or special election for that purpose; and the Legislature may also authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected for the further maintenance of the public roads; provided that a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed fifteen (15) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such county. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of the public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws. This section shall not be construed as a limitation of powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or section of this Constitution."

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended that the same will hereafter read as follows: "Section 9. The State tax on property, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed thirty-five (35) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation; and no county, city or town shall levy more than twenty-five (25) cents for city or county purposes, and not exceeding fifteen (15) cents for roads and bridges, and not exceeding fifteen (15) cents to pay jurors on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the Amendment September 25, 1883; and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five (25) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, in any one year, and except as is in this Constitution otherwise provided; provided, however, that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the foregoing county taxes by changing the rates provided for any of the foregoing purposes by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of said foregoing county taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, in any one year; provided further that before the said Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in said county taxes that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county at a general or special election, and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; and, provided further that if and when such re-allocations and changes in the aforesaid county taxes have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of any county, as herein provided, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which same shall be approved, unless the same shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court at a general or special election for that purpose; and the Legislature may also authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected for the further maintenance of the public roads; provided that a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed fifteen (15) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such county. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of the public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws. This section shall not be construed as a limitation of powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or section of this Constitution."

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 2. ## V-NEWS

With fruits scarce and relatively expensive at this time, the problem arises as to how to include the amounts necessary to health and well being without unduly increasing the amount spent for food. Here are some time-tested stretchers for fruits; have you tried them?

Avoid serving whole fruits—especially large ones—to children. Often much of the fruit is wasted.

Rather than serve whole peaches where the skins and some of the fruit around the seed may be wasted, peel the fruit and save the peelings. Slice or cube the fruit, add a bit of sugar, dextrose, or corn sirup to suit the taste, and let it stand covered in a cold place until the sweetening has penetrated. Serve plain, with top milk, or cereals, or on puddings. The fruit apparently goes much farther.

Grind the peach peelings, free from imperfections of course, thru a coarse chopper and measure. To each cup of pulp, add from one-fourth to one-third cup sugar. Add a small quantity of water to start the extraction of juice. Cook very slowly until tender. This makes an excellent fruit butter.

Use thinly slices, lightly sweetened fruits as a topping for cream pies instead of meringue or cream.

Try sliced, sweetened fruits between graham crackers or rounds of baked pastry. Serve with some of the fruit juice, top milk, or a thin sauce.

Combine fruits and vegetables in a cooling summer salad-dessert. Pleasing combinations are: shredded sweet cabbage with oranges or raisins; grated or minced carrots with apples and a few nuts; grated carrots with raisins; finely chopped celery, apples and raisins or nuts.

Fry tart apple rings in a very little fat and serve with pork.

Save the left over single pieces of fruit and the juice from canned fruits and combine in a frozen or congealed dessert or mix with lemon juice as a beverage.

Cook the good portions of bruised or overripe fruit and use as a sauce over cake or pudding or make into jam.
